Brief story:

In the Indian society, a lot of importance is placed on being able to speak in English in our life. In fact, proficiency with the language is considered a barometer of sophistication and status. English Vinglish was a story of a woman, whose name is Shashi, who's made to feel independent and insecure by her family and society because she cannot speak English fluently. Her world changes when she decides to enroll in an English-speaking class. Here, she meets a different type of people, who help her realize that she must value herself beyond the narrow perspective of her family and society. Sridevi was lauded for her nuanced performance in the film. The film was a statement on society encourages prejudices and how self-worth has nothing to do with such contrived expectations.

Story plot:

Shashi Godbole is a housewife. Who makes and sells laddoos. She works from home. Her husband Satish, and daughter, Sapna take her for granted, mock her poor English skills and generally treat her with disrespect, making Shashi feel negative and insecure. However, her young son, Sagar loves her as she is, and her mother-in-law offers her words of sympathy.

Shashi's older sister Manu, who lives in New York, invites Shashi's family to her daughter Meera's wedding to Kevin. It is decided that Shashi will go to New York alone to help Manu organize the wedding, and her husband and children will join after few days. During her flight to America, Shashi is given inspirational advice by a comrade passenger (Amitabh Bachchan). While Shashi is in New York, she has a lesson experience at a coffee shop due to her inability to communicate in English. Using that money she made from selling laddoos she secretly join to a talkative English class that offers to teach the language in four weeks, showing her resourcefulness at navigating an unknown city alone. She meets her classmates whose are David Fischer as (the instructor); Eva as a(Mexican nanny); Salman khan as a(Pakistani cab driver); Yu Son as a(Chinese hairstylist); Ramamurthy as a(Tamil software engineer); Udumbke as a(young African-Caribbean man); and Laurent as a(French chef). Shashi quickly becomes a promising and committed student, earns everyone's respect with her delightful behavior and her cuisine, and obtain self-confidence. Laurent becomes attracted to Shashi. When he tries to kiss her on the rooftop of a building, Shashi pushes him away and runs off, but fails to explain that she is married.

Meanwhile, Shashi's niece Radha who is Meera's younger sister finds out about her secret English classes and is supportive of her pursuit. Shashi starts watching English films at night and does her homework concentrationally. As per coaching classes rule to complete the English-speaking course and get a certificate, each student must write and deliver a 5-minute speech. Shashi's family joins her in New York earlier than expected. Shashi tries to continue attending class, but decides to quit because of schedule discords, and asks Radha to inform David Fischer. The test date consistent with that of the wedding, and Shashi is forced to miss the test.

Radha invites David and the entire class to the wedding, where Shashi's husband Satish is taken suddenly at being introduced to a diverse group of people by his wife. Shashi gives a heart touching and a make aware toast to the married couple in English, surprising everyone who knew her as a typical, traditional, Indian housewife. In her speech, Shashi praise the virtues being married and having a family, describing the family as a safe space of love and respect where weaknesses are not ridiculed. Shashi's husband and daughter are sorry about to treating her with disrespect. Her teacher David declares that she has passed the course with discrimination and issues her the certificate. Shashi thanks Laurent for "making better herself". Shashi's family returns to India; during their flight home, Shashi asks the flight attendant in fluent English whether she has any Hindi newspapers in Hindi version.

Review:

This movie is so good to show if you speak English fluently that is not a serious matter. You should try to learn every day and then practice because If you cannot practice then how to prepare? No age limit to learn anything.
